

30 Years much more than just a school

11th February 2019

Dear Parents and Carers

I am writing to inform you that World Book day takes place on Thursday 7th March 2019 and as part of this, we will be delivering a week-long celebration of all things reading!

Between Monday 4th and Friday 8th March, a wide range of reading activities will be happening in school both inside and outside of lessons. As always, we hope to emphasise to students how important reading is and to promote reading for pleasure.

There will be competitions for students to get involved in as well as opportunities for students to read to younger children, staff and members of the community. We will also be holding a 'Read-aloud-athon', aiming to have someone in school reading aloud in the restaurant for the whole week during school hours. Students will also be given a free book which they will select from a pop-up book shop that we will set up in school. We would also like to ask you to join us in celebrating reading by posting a photograph of yourself reading with your child on our Facebook page-please look out for the post that asks you to do this.

Reading is an integral part of the school day at Park Community School and we would like to take this opportunity to remind you of its importance for students in both their examinations but also for their future success. Wherever your child is in their secondary school experience, please continue to encourage them to read in their own time and talk to them about the activities they will participate in during this exciting week.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours faithfully

C. L. Harrison
