Dear Parents and Carers of students attending Key Worker School

This letter contains important information regarding arrangements for next week and the break for half term.

| | |
|------------------------|--|
| Monday, 8 February | Normal School day for Key Worker Students |
| Tuesday, 9 February | Normal School day for Key Worker Students |
| Wednesday, 10 February | Challenge Day - normal school timing for Key Worker Students. Students have selected 3 of 12 workshops for the day. They may wear non-school uniform, but this must be appropriate for the activities they have chosen. Some are in Performing Arts all day, PE or at the Farm. |
| Thursday, 11 February | Student Review Day - no Key Worker School. All students will attend live Teams one to one meeting with their tutor. If your child usually attends Key Worker School and will not be able to access this from home, they can come into school for this appointment only and access a computer suite in school with some staff support. |
| Friday, 12 February | INSET day/No Key Worker School and break for half term |
| Monday, 22 February | Students return to Key Worker School |

We hope you and your families have a restful half term and we look forward to seeing Key Worker School students back in school on Monday, 22 February.

Yours faithfully

Christopher Anders
Headteacher
